

Andreas Dimitriadis holds for the last five years the position of Head of Piraeus Bank's Northern Greece Business Centers with a portfolio of 2,450 companies of all sectors under management.

He studied Business Administration at the University of Macedonia with postgraduate studies in Finance (MSc in Finance) at Lancaster University UK.

He started his career in the Banking Sector at the Bank of Cyprus and has served for ten years as Business Centre Manager at Egnatia, Marfin, CPB and Piraeus Bank. He has 27 years of experience specializing in financing SMEs.