

Senior Manager, Deals Services

Apostolos is a Certified Public Accountant and Senior Manager at Deals Services of Grant Thornton Greece, based in the Thessaloniki office for the last 9 years. He is a member of the Economic Chamber of Greece and a member of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

He holds a degree in Economics from the University of Macedonia and has completed the Postgraduate Professional Training of Accountants (METKEL)

During his career, Apostolos has gained expertise in the following sectors: agricultural, industrial, food & beverage and construction, through the provision of audit, tax and consulting services. He has served as a member of the audit team in a number of multinationals, listed and non-listed companies, while he has participated in a large number of business plans, Due Diligence, company valuations and various other consulting services.