

State Secretary for Health

He comes from Asvestochori, Thessaloniki. He entered first in Medicine in 1975 and graduated with honors in 1981.

He specialized in psychiatry in Bonn and Cologne and was awarded a doctorate by the University of Bonn. He was involved in student trade unionism, was City Secretary and assumed positions of responsibility at all levels of New Democracy organizations.

He was President of the Administration of Thessaloniki and An. Secretary of Politics Planning, Governor of the Health Region of Macedonia 2004-2009.

In 2011 he was appointed Deputy Minister of Health and Social Solidarity in the Papademos Government in 2011/2012.

In 2012 he was invited by Antonis Samaras to establish the General Secretariat for Government Coordination, which he headed for about 2.5 years, until October 2014.

In 2019 I was elected MP in the second district of Thessaloniki.

In the elections of May 2023, he is re-elected as the first MP in the second constituency of Thessaloniki.

After the June elections, he is appointed Deputy Minister of Health by decision of the Prime Minister and President of New Democracy, Kyriakos Mitsotakis.